

An Author is coming to visit with Usborne Books at Home

Dear Parent/Guardian,

The fabulous Peter Bell (P.G Bell) is visiting our school on Tuesday 19th March 2024.

Peter will be running an assembly for all children followed by a workshop with one year group.

Peter is the Author of the award winning Train to Impossible Places series which won the Made for Mums award 2019 and has been shortlisted for many more including the Waterstones Children's Book Prize, Teach Primary Book Awards and Awesome Book Awards.

P. G. Bell's middle-grade fantasy follows the route of the Impossible Postal Express, a troll-operated delivery service that runs everywhere from ocean-bottom shipwrecks, to Trollville, to space. And when it makes an unscheduled stop in Suzy's living room, the young girl sneaks aboard and finds herself given the job of Deputy Post Master. Now, Suzy embarks on a series of nonstop adventures through magical realms she's never even dreamed of, populated by people and creatures both friendly and not-so-friendly as she discovers she has a more important mission beyond delivering packages.

Peter will be doing a book signing after the event, so if your child would like to order a copy of the book or maybe get the next in the series as part of an exclusive deal, then he would be happy to sign it for them. Please note the suggested reading age for this series is 9 years+ and due to event timings only books purchased through this offer will be signed on the day.

The event is being organised in conjunction with Clare Harding of Keynsham Book Corner, and Usborne will also donate UP TO 60% of the total orders in EXTRA FREE BOOKS to the school. If you would like to order any of the books for your child, please complete the attached form and email it over to Clare via keynshambookcorner@outlook.com. We regret to inform you that books cannot be purchased on the day.

We hope that the event is a highly enjoyable and educational experience for your child, this is being funded by the PTA and we are very excited to host it.
